TOO MANY CHEFS, they say, spoil the stew, but in the case of the Schooners Club of Trinity Presbyterian Church, a lot of chefs will be needed to serve the expected 600 guests. The club is sponsoring a public supper social Sept. 28 from 6 to 9 on the church grounds. From

Work on Drain Lags In Downtown Area

Project Is 20 Days Behind Schedule

Bad news was in store for Sierra Madre merchants this week with the report that work on the storm drain in the downtown area is about 20 days behind schedule.

The big ditch through the center of Baldwin Ave. has seriously interfered with downtown shopping, particularly in the area immediately adjacent to the drain, and consequently has caused several businesses to suffer financial losses.

"I don't think the contractors are concentrating in the business district as they should be," City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington said. "They are not moving along as I hoped they would."

HE EXPLAINED that instead of working full speed to get the business district section completed, the contractors had work spread out along much of the drain's length. He emphasized, however, that progress on the ditch as a whole is on schedule.

Diggers moved into the downtown area the week of Aug. 19. Following excavation, the bottom of the drain must be closed, forms installed and concrete poured.

It takes 21 to 28 days for the concrete to "cure" before the drain can be filled. If the construction crew had concentrated on the downtown area, that section would have been done by Oct. 1, as was originally planned.

Instead, however, the drain isn't expected to be refilled until about Oct. 20 and possibly not until Nov. 1, the date the entire ditch is supposed to be backfilled with dirt.

THE ENTIRE job, including repaving, must be done by Jan. 1.

Two bridges have been built across the drain, one at Baldwin and Sierra Madre Blvd., and another at Highland. Carter Ave. at the top of the drain was closed to through traffic this week.

The entire project from Foothill to the top of Baldwin will cost $1,063,910. Work of the E. A. Irish Co. is being supervised by the Army Corps of Engineers.

Luncheon Starts 1957 Chest Appeal

The yearly Community Chest appeal got under way last Tuesday when Chest officials and civic leaders met at a luncheon in Pasadena's Huntington Sheraton Hotel.

Representing the Sierra Madre Community Chest were Mrs. Burton N. Cousens, secretary, and Mrs. Harry Elwood, a member of the Chest Executive Board.

The Chest drive locally will start on Oct. 7, with a goal of $10,500.

"GIVING through Community Chests must be one of the most important sales campaigns undertaken by business and industry," Ray R. Eppert, executive vice president of Burroughs Corp., told the 200 guests at the luncheon.

He characterized Chest fund raising as a promotional project with an annual goal of "more customers and bigger sales," adding:

"Payroll contributions insure more than four times the amount of money given through cash donations. Because of Southern California's complex population structure, with many residents working in cities other than where they live, 'on the job' giving must be encouraged for best results."

While California is one of the most populous states, its per capita giving lags far behind most of the other states, the speaker reported.

He said cities represented at Tuesday's meeting had a per person ratio of 2 cents to $4.11 in Community Chest and United Fund giving, while the national average is $2.91.

"COMMUNITY Chest campaign workers must sell the product rather than the contributions," he added. He stressed the importance of youth work accomplished by Chest agencies, comparing young people to guided missiles.

Record Set In School Population

Sierra Madre's grammar schools, public and private, opened their doors to a record enrollment this week.

Sierra Madre City School and Sierra Mesa report a total of 760 students, 558 at the former school and 202 at the latter.

St. Rita's parochial school, which opened a week ago Monday, enrolled 370 students in grades 1 through 8. This considerably tops last year's enrollment.

The Ascension Church school opened Tuesday, also with a record of 135 students in kindergarten through 8th grade.

In Pasadena, pupils trooped to classrooms in record numbers, bearing out predictions of school officials that the area's school-age population is still growing.

A total of 30,311 pupils reported to their classes from kindergarten through 14th grade, an increase of 1,453 from a year ago.

The only surprise was the approximate 5 per cent increase in the elementary school rolls, matching the increase of the system as a whole. In the past two years, elementary growth has lagged behind secondary increases.

Elizabeth Staff, Former Resident, Dies at 87

Mrs. Elizabeth Staff, 87, former resident of Sierra Madre, died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Halliday of Hollywood.

Mrs. Staff was the widow of Dr. Fred Staff, who was pastor of the Sierra Madre Congregational Church for two periods. He died here in 1925. Mrs. Staff remained in the city and her services to the church and the community are remembered by many friends.

Interment will take place in Colorado Springs, Colo., where Dr. Staff had a long pastorate and where he was buried.

Mrs. Staff is survived by two daughters and a son.

NUCLEAR RESEARCH

Dr. Alvin V. Tollestrup, assistant professor of physics at the California Institute of Technology, has left for Geneva, Switzerland, where he will spend a year working with the European Council for Nuclear Research.

The discussion on Sept. 27 will consider "Ecclesiastes." Anyone desiring further information may call Betty Jane Peckham, SY. 6-5450. The group is sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Area Park College Asked

Pasadena School Board member Edgar Barratt pulled an old hat out of his bag of tricks Tuesday afternoon in the form of a proposal to build a junior college in Victory Park instead of a high school.

Mr. Barratt made his proposal to the Pasadena Board of Education, which voted unanimously to refer it to the Citizens' Committee on School Building Needs—the Messer Committee, for study.

This proposal has been made several times in the past by Mr. Barratt and has met with no success. His latest plan, however, has a new twist which, he hopes, will make it more palatable to Pasadenaans and to others whose children go to Pasadena high school, including Sierra Madreans.

MR. BARRATT'S proposal is based on using new funds made available to junior college districts by legislation passed last session in Sacramento. He would use the income from out-of-district student enrollments, doubled in amount by recent legislation, to finance new college construction. This money, Mr. Barratt said, is available to junior college districts but not to high schools.

The heart of his plan is the allotment to the district of $300 per ADA (average daily attendance) for junior college students enrolled here from other districts. By projecting this figure, Mr. Barratt says $750,000 a year would be available.

THERE ARE now $4,000,000 in funds for a school plant in Victory Park, but the School Board has not yet decided whether it will be a high school or junior college.

Adding the $750,000 to the amount now available, Mr. Barratt believes there would be sufficient capital to amor-

Local Groups Support Final Rites Observed for Pioneer's Kin

Services were held Wednesday at Ripple Mortuary Chapel for Emma Clara Guerrero, 81, who died suddenly Sunday at her home, 301 Foothill Ave.

Mrs. Guerrero was the widow of Vincent W. Guerrero, whose father, Camillo Guerrero, was one of the pioneer developers of Sierra Madre. He opened the first subdivision here and Camillo Rd. is named after him.

A native of Portsmouth, Ohio, Mrs. Guerrero had lived here for the past eight years. She is survived by three sons: Camillo V., of Los Angeles; Carl A. and Jack J., both of Santa Monica. She also leaves four grandchildren.

Private interment was held at Calvary Cemetery, Los Angeles.

All-County Burning Ban Oct. 1

Refuse burning becomes illegal in Sierra Madre October 1, according to a statement made yesterday by Air Pollution Control Officer Smith Griswold.

"Residents of some cities have been misinformed that the burning ban applies only to the unincorporated areas of the county. Nothing could be further from the truth," Mr. Smith stated.

"On Oct. 1, refuse burning becomes illegal in all that portion of Los Angeles County lying within the limits of the Los Angeles basin, including both cities and unincorporated areas of the county," he continued.

SIERRA MADRE, of course, lies within the Los Angeles basin and its residents must comply with the burning ban or face possible $500 fine or six months' imprisonment.

Enforcement of the law will not be by local police, however, according to City Administrator Lawrence Bevington, who said that task will remain in the hands of the APCD.

Sierra Madre City Council, he said, could, if it desired, pass an ordinance making it a city ban as well as county. This would require enforcement by the local police.

ONLY AIR pollution approved multiple chamber incinerators will be permitted to operate after Oct. 1. Open fires and industrial refuse burning operations were halted months ago in the effort to control smog.

All burnable trash will be collected in Sierra Madre on the same daily schedule as is now in effect. Types of containers will not be specified until the City Council has had 30 days to watch enactment of the county ban, Mr. Bevington said.

Deadline Sept. 30 For Dog Tags

Deadline for purchasing dog licenses is Sept. 30, not Oct. 1 as was erroneously reported in last week's News. After that date a $2 penalty is automatically attached to the license fee.

Civic Service Club Names New Officers

Pat Beutler was re-elected president of the Sierra Madre Civic Service Club at the group's first meeting of the fall season last Monday evening in the Woman's Clubhouse.

Elected treasurer was Syd Westfall. The vice president will be chosen at the next meeting. Col. Walter Thurber, founder of the club, was made a life-time member of the Executive Committee.

The speaker at Monday's meeting was Larry Lomax, business administrator of the Sierra Madre Hospital, who discussed some of the modern equipment which was installed for the convenience and safety of patients.

Phone Rate Hike Hearing Planned Today, Tomorrow

Further hearings on the California Water and Telephone Company's bid for a $4,472,000 increase in telephone rates will be held by the State Public Utilities Commission today and tomorrow in Los Angeles.

Commissioner Rex Hardy and Examiner Manley W. Edwards will preside at 10 a.m. in the commission courtroom at 145 S. Spring St.

The phone company is seeking increases ranging from 25 cents to $2.20 a month for local and extended exchange service in Los Angeles, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties.

An Old Tradition

Members of the City Council are expected to uphold and perpetuate an old Sierra Madre tradition when they meet Tuesday night—the appointment of a new member.

If the Council waited beyond Tuesday—or, to be specific, beyond Sept. 28—a special election would have to be held to fill the vacancy created by the resignation a month ago of Lorne Pratt.

This would be contrary to tradition and, most dreadful of all, might result in the election by the people of a "self-seeker." Or, in short, somebody councilmen would rather see remain a private citizen.

True, Mr. Pratt's term would have expired in April, making the appointment of his successor a short one.

True, also, a special election would cost probably up to $1,000—an expenditure many taxpayers might think wasteful in view of the April elections.

It's equally true, however, that a councilman appointed in September will have a much better chance of re-election in April than his opponent, if he has one.

Quite probably the man appointed by the Council will be a credit to the community. This doesn't alter the fact, though, that the repeated appointment of members rather than their election could easily lead to a closed corporation. Or to rule by a clique.

Also disturbing is the fact that since Mr. Pratt's resignation not one word has been made publicly as to whom the Council is considering to replace him.

After the Council meeting of Sept. 10, Mayor James called for an executive session, presumably to discuss the qualifications of candidates. Under the law, the press and public may be barred from Council meetings called to discuss personnel, both those classified as employed and those appointed.

Mr. Pratt's successor will be "appointed." It's true, but the job of councilman is also an elective one, not normally an appointive position, as is membership on the Planning Commission or Library Board.

The line here, it appears, is a fine one.

This is not to suggest that councilmen are proceeding illegally or do not have the best interests of their constituents at heart. Far from it.

The question, however, of appointments rather than elections, and of closed meetings to discuss matters which should be considered of great public interest, should be scrutinized more closely than has been the case in the past.

Perhaps this is one tradition we could do without?—H.W.E.

Bank Takes Trading Stamps As Savings Account Scheme

By C. Wilson Harder
President, National Federation of Independent Businesses

A recent action by the Society of Savings in Hartford, Conn., may quite possibly result in a close scrutiny by Congress, and perhaps even the Treasury Department itself.

And as a matter of fact, it may well be that this financial institution purposely took this step to promote such an investigation.

Recently, this banking house advertised it will accept a completed book of trading stamps as half of an opening savings account of $6.

In other words, anyone with a book full of trading stamps, plus three dollars in cash, will be credited with an account of $6.

This, then, is a tacit admission by a financial institution trading stamps have equal value with legal tender.

That is where fur may fly.

Under the U.S. Constitution, there is a strict prohibition against promiscuous printing of money. In fact, as is well known, the Secret Service for years has been most active in combating issuance of counterfeit money.

Often in the past, there has been the question raised as to whether or not trading stamps did infringe on the laws relating to the printing of currency. But it always has seemed to be held as long as the stamps could only be exchanged for certain prescribed items of merchandise, they did not fall into a category of unlimited acceptance as is the case with legal tender.

Now, however, this action

by this banking operation raises an entirely new concept.

In fact, some observers of this latest facet in the trading stamp phenomena feel that the government will not be able to ignore this situation.

Actually, if this stunt spreads widely enough over the country, inflation could be given a healthy boost to the further devaluation of the dollar. All over the nation, people could with three dollars and a book of stamps, open a savings account for six dollars, and after a few days, draw out six dollars for the three dollars put in a few days earlier.

In fact, going even a step further, it could open a whole new field for counterfeiters as presumably any talented printer could turn out bogus trading stamps by the carload.

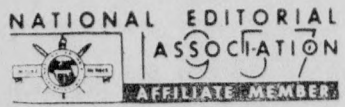

While the Secret Service does an excellent job in holding down counterfeiting of U.S. legal tender, it is hardly to be imagined that this fine force would ever be set to work tracking down trading stamp counterfeiters.

Thus, if the action of this Connecticut banking institution spreads around the country which in essence will result in trading stamps having the validity of legal currency, a whole new enterprise may well be launched . . . that of printing and peddling bogus trading stamps. And while such enterprise would be illegal, who is going to track down and prosecute such counterfeiters. It is highly improbable that the federal government or state governments will appropriate huge sums for added police forces to hunt down the origin of "counterfeit" trading stamps. This thing really has immense possibilities.

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK

Around the Square

By Marjorie Parker

Down on the 400 block of E. Highland some old-fashioned horse trading has been going on for the last week. Seems that the parental boom first was lowered on Vicky and Andrea Padlock (in the 12 to 14 age bracket)—that their rooms would have to be cleaned up or else.

The girls thought quite a bit about the else and came up with a rummage sale of all the non-essentials they could lay hand on. The idea caught on—how to clean your room for profit—and street sales appeared all along Highland.

Nancy Solary, Debby and David and Forrest Watts scheduled sales. Profits in the neighborhood have been running as high as 39 cents—as low as 28 cents.

It is only now dawning upon the parents that for all the junk that went out of the house, as much has returned. Only this junk was the neighbor's. Well, whoever thought you could win with kids?

WE HAVE temporarily lost happy Sierra Madreans Grace and Ted Baerle and daughters Ellen and Sue. When their residence on Canyon was sold, Baerles decided to move across the line into an area from which Sue could attend Mount Sac (Mount San Antonio College). So it's 116 N. Sunset Place, Monrovia, for the family now.

GRETCHEN (Conzelman) de Col and husband Juan will live in San Francisco while he gets his law degree from Hastings. This reunites three of the sisters, since Julie with husband and children and Kathy with job, also live in the bay area.

NEATEST non sequitur of the week comes from Althea Gibson in an interview after her magnificent win of the women's national tennis championship at Forest Hills. In describing the aid of her coach Sid Llewellyn, Miss Gibson stated:

"I was doing well, but not well enough and I was down. Sid told me to get help from a clergyman. I didn't, but the State Department sent me on a tour."

LAST WEEK, the report goes, the Richter brothers had a job requiring that a skip loader be brought onto some property by way of other persons' side yards and finally a ramp. Four times the busy little piece of machinery growled up the ramp. Four times it fell off. Fifth time it made it.

But the whole experience, fraught with tension, so interested the wife of a prominent attorney that she is still one day behind with her washing.

AN ANONYMOUS tip that Arnold's Hardware Women's Bowling Team looked like champions last week at the Arcadia alley. May we have their names, please, Mr. Arnold?

Lee Shippey asks
What Do You Think?

Just to add to the joys of moving into a much smaller house, both our washing machine and our deep freeze have gone on the blink. To take no chances, we called a Bendix man in Oceanside. He said he was going to San Diego the next day and would call on us en route. He arrived all dressed up, with no tools, did no work whatever, but simply told us one thing he said would make everything right—and charged $10. After he was gone, WE did the one thing he said should be done, and joyously turned on the washing machine. It didn't work, and my wife looked at it she could outdo Niobe, and wash the clothes in tears.

Then the deep freeze suddenly quit working and we had to throw away numerous dollars' worth of food. If the diagnostician from Oceanside had shown an inclination to soil his lily-white hands we might call him again. In the meantime, we feel as discouraged as Mr. Dulles must feel about the Middle East and Mr. Stassen must feel about the London conference, though we hope we have much more to be optimistic about than they have.

And I do think that Joe Dokes, retired and struggling along on social security, should have as much right to earning all he can in addition to that pension as Gen. MacArthur has. Oh, sure, I'm prejudiced. I'm one of the Joe Dokeses.

MANY SIERRA Madreans never knew that Jessie Sprague lived in their city. She has been battling ill health for years and was gnarled and twisted by arthritis. But there was nothing twisted about her heart. It overflowed with kindness and beauty. I never heard her mention her own ills, and I never heard her mention her benevolences, but there were plenty of both. The sufferings of a great many persons have been lessened because that quiet, unassuming little woman lived, and will be sincerely saddened by her death.

NEW HOME OFFICE
Kenneth D. Childs, president of Home Savings and Loan Association, has announced the purchase of the southwest corner of property at First and Huntington Drive in Arcadia. The property, sold to Home by Mr. and Mrs. Tom K. McGinley, will be the future site of the Arcadia branch office of Home Savings & Loan.

Tax Cuts Will Be High On New Congress Agenda

By Edgar W. Hiestand, Rep., 21st District

We're sailing for Europe (at our own expense) on what will be the first real vacation since I entered Congress. We intend to travel through 10 countries, see the sights and learn a bit before returning to the States and California late in the fall.

During the trip I hope to find time for first-hand study of such subjects as government financed housing, the devaluation of money, pegged currencies and their effect on the economy of Western Europe. These and related matters come up constantly before my congressional committee, Banking and Currency.

I hope, too, to send back occasional columns which will comment on the European scene. These will be interspersed with items about Washington and about Congress itself—what we did or didn't do this year, and what we hope to do when we re-convene in January.

Meanwhile I expect to stay in close contact with my Washington office. The staff will stay on duty and is equipped to dig out information in a hurry. If problems demand my attention, I'll be able to give it.

The world today is such that one can get far away—and still be close by. We hope to take advantage of it.

TAX REDUCTIONS will be high on the agenda when Congress reconvenes on Jan. 7. The House Ways and Means Committee, whose primary concern is the raising of revenue, has set two months of hearings which will encompass a sweeping review of the federal tax system.

President Eisenhower says he favors tax cuts if they can be granted within the framework of a balanced budget. He already has ordered the executive bureaus and agencies to slash expenses wherever possible. Many jobs will not be filled in the events of death, retirement or discharge. Other executive savings are in store.

At adjournment time the thinking on Capitol Hill seemed to lean toward "package" tax reductions that would spread the benefits to as many people and groups as possible. The "package" would include relief not only for individuals, but would contain a small reduction in the corporate income tax, something for small business, and some attention to excise taxes.

In my opinion our economy bloc helped set the stage for tax reductions. In pushing for savings this year, we were acting on a mandate from the American people who expressed themselves loudly when they saw the extent of the federal budget.

Savings appear to be around $5 billion. Possibly some of it will have to be restored through supplemental appropriations next year, but the important fact is that it finally became popular for Congress to save rather than spend. If this sentiment continues and we can dislodge the "spenders" from important positions in Congress, we can hope for even greater savings.

But one thing is clear. However and whenever the tax cuts come next year, there'll be a political tug-of-war to claim credit for them. Each party wants something to boast about when it goes into next year's congressional elections. The first session of the 85th Congress was distinguished perhaps by an absence of bad legislation, but politicians know they can't win votes by not doing something negative. They've got to do something positive, and putting money back into the taxpayer's pocket is about as positive a thing as possible. Hence the conviving to take credit.

ONE OF the most important bills to pass Congress during the final week was H.R. 7915, designed to protect the FBI files from being opened promiscuously to defendants. This bill resulted from the Supreme Court decision in the Jencks case, a decision widely criticized in Congress and elsewhere because it forced the FBI to drop prosecution of a number of cases rather than disclose important information to alleged criminals and traitors.

H.R. 7915 may be the forerunner to other bills which will offset other Supreme Court decisions under attack. Among the bills are two of my own, H.R. 679 and H.R. 6567, designed to guarantee that the Federal Government will not preempt the rights that have been granted to the states or to the people by the 10th Amendment to the Constitution.

Not only must we protect America from her enemies abroad, but as well from those at home who believe that the Federal Government must absorb various responsibilities that have been reserved for the people.

DURING the first seven months of 1957, visits at areas administered by the National Park Service increased by 9.4 per cent over last year. New areas brought into the system include Cape Hatteras National Seashore Recreation Area, Booker T. Washington National Monument, Independence National Historical Park and six other areas.

Approximately 55 million persons visited the Park Service areas last year, and the figure is expected to top 60 million this year.

Watch on the Potomac

By Robert G. Spivack

"SPORT" IN TENNESSEE—The smog over the Capitol gets so thick that often it's hard to see just what's going on in the rest of the country. One of the little items we missed until just now was a story out of Chattanooga, Tenn. We pass it on as a sign of the times.

Down in that town it seems the Ku Klux Klan is sponsoring a youthful softball team. It's a little hard to envision that outfit entering any so-called sports event, since we have always believed that fair play was always part of the game. But the KKK team is right in there and was even one of those chosen to represent the City of Chattanooga in a tournament at Nashville.

What's really hard to understand is the fact that a local public utility, The Chattanooga Gas Co., has also entered a team in the tournament. So has a Chattanooga congregation, the St. Elmo Baptist Church. We can't imagine what brand of religion is preached in that church.

What we find hardest to understand, though, is the attitude of the officials of this large Southern city. Despite the fact that "The Chattanooga Times" brought the whole matter to their attention in no uncertain terms, they were willing to open publicly supported facilities to the Ku Klux Klan.

CAN YOU imagine what would happen in most other cities if a public utility were to enter a tournament with a team sponsored by the Communist Party? Yet the Klan is also on the Attorney General's "subversive list." The Chattanooga officials regard this as purely a local matter and undoubtedly hoped that it might be hushed up in the rest of the country. But these things have a way of getting around and we're happy to do our part in seeing that they do.

Fortunately for citizens of that state Chattanooga is not the only city in Tennessee. There is also Clinton.

"HOSPITALITY" IN ALABAMA—On the same day that news came out of Chattanooga there was a little noticed wire service item from Maplesville, Ala. The United Press told the story with this lead:

"Three Negroes who were flogged by 150 hooded Ku Klux Klansmen have fled this town and others are afraid to leave their homes at night, a white businessman said today.

"Raymond Stremming said Negroes on the night shift at his veneer plant were 'afraid to come to work.' He said he had been warned to leave town."

No reason was given for the violence. We report this item for the benefit of those who insist that conditions have "subsided" in the South and who wonder whether a civil rights bill was really necessary. In passing we might mention that the story also graphically illustrates the KKK concept of good sportsmanship. The odds against the three Negroes they flogged were only 50 to 1.

WHY THE HOUSING BOOM BECAME A BUST—Housing activity in the U.S. is now at its lowest point in eight years. Officials of the federal housing agencies, headed by a former congressman who always opposed public housing (Albert Cole), are wringing their hands and offering long-winded explanations on what's happened.

We don't particularly go for experts who over-simplify things, but in this case we believe the answer is pretty plain. The high cost of money, the interest rate you pay your bank for a housing loan, is now 16 2/3 per cent higher on FHA-guaranteed loans than it was just nine months ago.

This is the story in brief: If you were buying a house last December through FHA you paid a maximum of 4 1/2 per cent interest. The Eisenhower administration and Federal Reserve then raised it to 5 per cent. Then in mid-summer it went up to 5 1/2 per cent. On top of all this there is a mortgage insurance charge of 1/2 of 1 per cent. And that's how the percentage of increase went up 16 2/3 per cent.

Sen. Sparkman (D. Ala.) says this provides a "wind-fall" of $15,000,000 for bankers and other money lenders.

FOREIGN NOTE—While the price of gasoline and oil remains at record-high levels in their country, the British auto manufacturers are trying to get more miles-per-gallon out of their 1958 models. In this country it's different. Most U.S. auto companies are still shying away from the small economy-size car despite the success of the British Morris Minor and the German Volkswagen in penetrating the American market.

In most parts of this country gasoline and petroleum products are also more expensive than ever before. But our auto manufacturers are trying for more power and less miles per gallon. My 1949 Dodge (six cylinders) got 16 mpg in city driving and 17 mpg in the country. My new Ford (also a six) barely gets 12 mpg in the city or country.

Dr. Albert Fogg, director of the British Motor Industry Research Association, says they are trying for a 30 per cent increase in mileage per gallon. The Morris Minor now gets better than 35 miles per gallon.

Speaking of U.S. manufacturers, Fogg said: "They can fight the battle of longer and lower-looking cars. We'll concentrate on development of more efficient and economical vehicles."

HELP MERCHANTS

Dear Sierra Madreans:

Our Sierra Madre merchants whose stores are on Kersting Court and Baldwin Ave. are suffering a real hardship because of the storm drain operation on Baldwin.

It is such a convenience to us to have their well-stocked stores in our village, and all of these merchants have been so generous with their contributions to the many fund drives that they are asked to support—let's help them now by continuing to shop in that area.

I just learned that one can go up Baldwin on the left side of the street and park easily in the triangle on Kersting Court. And there is parking available in the rear of the shops. It's not too difficult to get there—it just looks as if it were.

Sincerely,
ALICE JONES

The Kulinary Kettle ...

Buffet Dinners Are Easy To Prepare and Serve

By Toni Maurin
SY 7-9634

Mrs. Robert (Ann) Gingrich, 3785 New Haven, delights in serving her guests buffet style and has quite a collection of unusual recipes which are easy to prepare.

CRAB AND SHRIMP CASSEROLE (Serves 6)

Combine the following ingredients in a casserole:
1 can crab meat (deboned)
1/2 cup chopped onions
1 cup celery
1 full can mushrooms
1/2 cup warm water
2 cans cleaned shrimp
1/2 pkg. slivered almonds
1 can Chow Mein noodles
Salt and pepper to taste
After combining the above, use the balance of the package of almonds over top and bake in a preheated 325°F. oven for 40 minutes.

BAKED CHEESE FONDUE (Serves 12)

4 cups grated Tillamook or cheddar cheese
8 tbs. butter or margarine
4 cups day old bread cubed
1 dozen eggs separated
1 tsp. salt
Cayenne pepper to taste
1 quart of milk

Scald milk and pour over cubed bread which has been sauted in the butter until golden brown. Add cheese and seasonings. Beat egg yolks slightly and add to mixture.

Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites and turn into a large greased casserole. Bake in a pan of water as you would a custard in a preheated 375°F. oven until firm (approximately 40 minutes), and serve immediately. This recipe may be cut down very easily to serve less and the joy of making it is that it will not collapse and fall like a soufflé.

SWEET-SOUR PORK

Cook one green pepper cut in small cubes for about five minutes or until tender.

In a heavy frying pan heat 3/4 cup oil and add 1 clove of garlic. Sauté 1 pound of lean pork cut in 1/2" cubes and dipped in the following batter until golden on both sides.

Batter: Beat until smooth two eggs, 3 tbs. flour, and salt and pepper. After meat is golden pour out all but 1 tbs. oil and add one-third cup chicken bouillon and four slices of pineapple cut in bite size. Cover pan and lower heat and cook for 10 minutes.

In the meantime blend together the following sauce:
2 1/2 tbs. flour
1/2 cup vinegar
2/3 cup chicken bouillon
2 tsp. soy sauce
1/2 cup sugar

Pour over meat mixture and stir until sauce thickens. Serve over rice.

MRS. GINGRICH is the mother of three children. Susan, her eldest, is working at Southern Counties Gas Co. Michael is in his first year at Southern California, and her youngest daughter, Mary Ann, is in the eighth grade at the Assumption school.

She makes hats for all of her friends at the slightest hint from them. She also hopes to find time this year to browse around and do a little antique collecting which is a prime hobby with her.

Mr. Gingrich is an executive in the Hoffman Laboratories in L. A.

VERSATILE GROUND BEEF

Can you think of any meat that is more versatile in use than good ground beef?

Why! You could cook for a good long time without ever duplicating a recipe you made with ground beef! You could use it often and serve it a new way every time!

BEEF PATHTIES

IN SWEET-SOUR SAUCE

2 C. soft bread crumbs

1/4 C. finely chopped onion

1 tsp. salt

1/2 tsp. nutmeg

1/2 tsp. thyme

1/2 C. water

1 lb. ground beef

Shortening

3 large onions, sliced

1/4 C. brown sugar

2 tsp. prepared mustard

2 Tbsp. water

1/4 C. vinegar

Combine bread crumbs, chopped onion, seasonings and water. Let stand 5 min. Add ground beef and mix lightly, but thoroughly. Shape into 8 patties. Brown patties on both sides in a small amount of hot shortening. Cover with sliced onions. Mix remaining ingredients and pour over onions. Cover and simmer for 30 min.

STUFFED CABBAGE LEAVES

1 lb. ground beef

1/2 tsp. salt

1/2 tsp. pepper

1/2 tsp. poultry seasoning

2 Tbsp. sugar

2 Tbsp. vinegar

1 C. cooked rice

12 large cabbage leaves

2 Tbsp. bacon drippings

1 C. cooked tomatoes

Mix first eight ingredients together thoroughly. Shape into 12 rolls or balls, wrap in cabbage leaves and fasten with toothpicks. (If the cabbage leaves are quite crisp, dip them into very hot water for a minute so they'll be easier to wrap around the meat balls.) Heat bacon drippings in a large skillet and add stuffed cabbage leaves. Pour in tomatoes. Cover and simmer for 10 to 25 min. turning occasionally.

HAMBURG-DUMPLING STEW

1 1/2 lbs. ground beef

4 Tbsp. shortening

1 onion, chopped

1/2 C. celery, sliced

2 carrots, diced

2 C. canned tomatoes

1 C. hot water

Salt and pepper

2 Tbsp. flour

Dumpling mixture

Season meat with salt and pepper, and shape into medium size balls. Brown meat balls in hot fat. Lift out meat and lightly brown cut vegetables. Add tomatoes, water and season to taste. Thicken mixture slightly with flour mixed into a paste with cold water. Return meat balls to pan. Cover and cook 10 minutes. Mix drop biscuit dough, using standard baking powder biscuit recipe or prepared biscuit mix. Drop dough by tablespoonfuls onto boiling meat and vegetable mixture, allowing room for dumplings to expand. Cover pan closely. Adjust flame so that mixture just bubbles. Cook 15 minutes without lifting cover.

LUTHERAN MISSION BELL

Will our new United Lutheran Church in this community have a youth program? Several persons have been asking. The answer is YES, I had the privilege of serving as a chaplain for the retreat-outing-planning session of the Lutheran League of our church in La Canada two days last week. We caravanned to a beach house near Ensenada, Mexico, and I wish you could have shared the enthusiasm, ideas and fun we had. We swam in the ocean, caught 112 starfish which the youths are going to sell to raise money, had our devotions at the fireplace and bonfire on the beach, and spent other hours planning fall and winter activities. Most certainly we will have a Lutheran League for both Junior and Senior High youths!

The Lutheran League encourages our youths to respond to the love of Jesus Christ... with a deep faith and consecrated life... providing inspiration, guidance and experience in Christian living... programming for growth through education and activity in five areas that are representative of every Christian young person's life. These areas are:

CHRISTIAN VOCATION—God calls each person to serve Him with all their heart.

EVANGELISM—Telling others the good news which has changed his own life into a joyful compulsion for the consecrated Christian.

MISSIONS—All God's children need a correct concept of their Father. Those who do know Him must share their understanding and love.

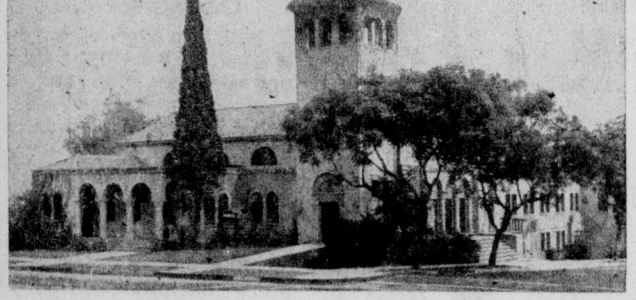

SOCIAL ACTION—Awareness of society's imperfections, and dedication to improving it, are fruits of Christian convictions.

RECREATION—Enthusiasm that wells out of the experiences of redemption overflows joyfully to other Christians.

Our Lutheran League will not only encourage youths to deepen their faith and understanding, but also will provide service projects through which faith and understanding result in good works. We hope to form our league shortly after our mission begins worship service in October.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY—Integrating youth into the total life of the congregation is almost an unexplored potential of the church. Because of separate and unrelated programs of youth in many congregations, there needs to be an introduction where youth and adults actually learn to know each other. Young people need a deepened understanding of church life and work. Adults like-wise, but they also need to know young people, appreciate their problems, desires and ideals. Our Lutheran League will work toward this worthy goal.

Yours Faithfully,
REV. RAY E. HANSEN
United Lutheran Pastor

Congregational School Dedication This Sunday

The staff of the Church School of the Congregational Church will stand before the altar for dedication on this coming Sunday, which is being observed as Religious Education Sunday at the church. Regular classes for each grade began last Sunday, according to Milton Emerson, superintendent of the Church School.

Rev. George Lindsay will preach on "Christ and the Children," introducing the study which the Church School will undertake this fall and winter.

Men of the church, under the leadership of Al Paus, will be attending the Laymen's Convocation at Pilgrim Pines, Congregational conference camp near Yucaipa. The convocation will run Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 21 and 22.

'Disciples' To Help Form New Church

Another step toward formation of the new United Lutheran Church in this community will come with organization of a disciples' committee of men.

These men, as did the first-called disciples of Christ, will do the pioneering tasks for the mission by serving as a temporary steering committee. The disciples will work closely with the pastor, the Rev. Ray E. Hansen, in planning the first worship service which will be held in October.

After the church is formally organized, probably early next year, the disciples' committee's work will be over. A church council will then be elected to succeed the group, although men who serve on the disciples' committee will be eligible for election as councilmen.

"We are planning to call upon men of varied religious, professional and vocational backgrounds who have expressed interest in our mission to do this important service as modern-day disciples of Christ," Pastor Hansen said.

"We already have some men who have volunteered, and those who do not serve on this committee will have opportunities to serve our church in many other ways, such as ushering, evangelism, stewardship."

Women of the church also will have an opportunity to serve on the altar and worship committees, and both the men and women will be given a chance to teach Sunday School and serve as Lutheran League advisors as our church grows, the pastor added.

LESSON SERMON
Man's God-given dominion keynotes the lesson-sermon on the subject of "Matter" in all Christian Science churches on Sunday. The Golden Text is from I John (2:15) "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him."

SIERRA MADRE

VILLA
VIEWSBy Toni Maurin
Sycamore 7-9634

I have come to believe that we are doing our children a vast injustice by having three-month summer vacations. After observing the change in the local children after starting back to school, I have decided that there is where they should be longer. Their minds are so eager and ready to learn and play is not as much fun when it is so easy to come by.

Now the afternoon hours are happy and carefree. They have earned their free time. They no longer wrangle out of sheer boredom. Who was it that said "idleness breeds contempt"? It seems such a pity to deny them the right to schooling for almost 33 per cent of the year.

I know they can learn at home, and do, but what busy parents can take the time to sit down and give an organized lesson with phones ringing, meals to cook, and all of the hundreds of daily interruptions? A lost cause, no doubt, but one that gives food for thought.

MR. AND MRS. C. Tom Crawford of 1360 Sierra Madre villa had three very interesting houseguests recently. They were three officers from the Finnish ship M.S. Alca. They included Miss Terese Kohre, who is the only female telegrapher in that line, and also the only woman on board; Second Mate Hans Joelson and Second Engineer Karl Knutson. Mrs. Crawford had been entertained in Finland by Miss Kohre's family when she visited there a few years back. They were here for the street dance and were happy to observe the friendliness of the neighborhood. Mr. Crawford departed after their visit for a meeting with the CAB in Washington, D.C.

MR. AND MRS. Ben Rogers of 1802 Pasadena Glen spent a short vacation in Las Vegas last week. They went up by train and met Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Germain at the Royal Nevada. They did the town and then drove on home with the Germans.

OHhhh, a word of warning to those who own dogs that are apt to wander. The dog catcher is making daily visits in our area and has picked up several of the local canines for loitering. There is a stiff fee to retrieve the dogs and an even stiffer penalty for repeat performances.

MR. AND MRS. Nick De-pole of 1253 Sierra Madre Villa have sold their home and will soon be moving into a new home in Sierra Madre.

DR. AND MRS. Linus Pauling of 3500 Fairpoint have returned to their home again after a three-month trip abroad. While they were in Europe they visited France, England, Yugoslavia, Russia, Germany and Norway. However, in spite of their fabulous trip, they were very happy to be home again.

MRS. JOHN CHAPMAN entertained at a morning bridge and sandwich party last week. Among the guests were Mesdames Eugene Koch, Joseph Philipson, Robert Mueller, Aikman Armstrong, Charles Goldsworthy, George Holmes, Ernest Maurin and George Clark.

MR. AND MRS. F. Wayne Furstenberger and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dietzel joined with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meyer, all of the Kinneloa Mesa area, to celebrate the combined birthdays of the Meyers. They celebrated by going out for a Mexican dinner.

THE JOHN FRICKES of 3366 Barhite have had a busy entertaining schedule of late. They recently had a dinner party which included as guests Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tobias, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tyson and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Maple. Last week they held a bon voyage party for Mrs. Carl Fricke Jr., who has left for a trip to Europe.

WAITING FOR the first steak off the grill are these members of Don Benito PTA who are planning a barbecue Wednesday, Sept. 25, at 6:30 on the school grounds.

Field Room
Mothers to Attend 'Coffee'

Mothers who will serve as room representatives at Eugene Field School during the school year will talk over their jobs and learn their duties at a "coffee" meeting at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning at the home of Mrs. John Morris, 3795 Canfield.

Mrs. John Kane, former president of the Field PTA and this year serving as room representative chairman, will preside at the meeting.

Child care for pre-school age children of mothers attending will be held at the home of Mrs. William Hoggboom, 3725 Canfield.

'September Affair' Held Last
Saturday Night Attended by 400

More than 400 guests were in attendance at last Saturday night's "September Affair" held at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel poolside terrace and sponsored by the Hastings Ranch Guild of Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Included in the many parties given before and after the dance was the cocktail hour at the C. Neal Rowleys, 1400 Daveric, with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Teiderman, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Offous, Mr. and Mrs. John Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tampico, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stoller, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lieber in attendance. In addition to this group, a midnight buffet supper was served to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kaponyia, Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus L. Pruitt, Mr. and Mrs. Al Tompkins and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison. Following the supper, the guests adjourned to the Kaponyias' at 1205 Pine Bluff for a swim.

The Victor E. Caffees and Ralph A. Johnsons were co-hosts at a cocktail party with Mr. and Mrs. William Jonkers, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cline, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fenton, Mr. and Mrs. Monre Amber, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Newhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Millard, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McCormick and Mr. and Mrs. B. Simms in attendance.

Those friends arriving for a cocktail party given by the John H. Behrs and LeRoy Frandsens were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Barrington, Mr. and Mrs. James Wadelych, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Myers, Mr. and Mrs. John Dewings, Mr. and Mrs. Armour Killingsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bachtel.

Irv Noren Bowling Sets
Grand Opening in October

By Charles Ayres

Ever since Rip Van Winkle returned home from a long nap with stories of the elves knocking down 10 pins by rolling a ball, bowling has been a popular sport and recreational activity that everyone in the family has learned to enjoy.

Now, the labor unions willing, Hastings Ranch will have its own bowling arena before the frost is on the pumpkin.

At or about Oct. 15, the Irv Noren Bowl will open its doors to the bowling public and from that time on will be available on a seven-day-a-week schedule.

CO-OWNERS and operators will be Irv Noren, Pasadena's contribution to major league baseball, and Chuck Collins, who is presently similarly occupied with the Rodeo Bowl in southwest Los Angeles.

Noren, formerly of the Washington, New York and Kansas City American League entries, and presently with the St. Louis Cardinals, will be available after the World Series for full-time duty, while the burden will naturally fall on Collins during the baseball season.

Quite a program is being planned for the grand opening on Oct. 26 and 27. In addition to Irv Noren, such baseball talent as Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra will be on hand to take part in the program to be emceed by sports announcer Sam Balter.

On Saturday morning, Oct. 26, a special opening will be held for the kids with hot dogs and the like for free.

The 32 alleys will be outfitted with automatic pin-setting machines that are destined to give automation one of its biggest boosts, particularly among the pin boy set. Picture screens mounted above the alleys will make it easy for the bowlers to keep track of their scores without ever looking at the score sheet.

Six to 11:30 nightly, Monday through Friday, will be reserved for league competition. The general public holds sway during the day and weekends although Saturday mornings are reserved for the junior set.

In addition to the bowling alleys, there will be a billiard and pool room for those over 18, a restaurant to be known as the Bahama Inn, a cocktail bar, and facilities for purchasing all types of bowling equipment.

Bowling shoes will be mandatory and all shapes and sizes will be available for renting for 20 cents. Kids will be able to bowl on Saturday mornings for 30 cents a line, and the adult tariff will range from 45 to 50 cents a line depending on the time.

Garden Club
Opens Year
With Buffet

Hastings Ranch Garden Club will open its fall season at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday with a buffet luncheon at the home of Mrs. Joe DuPuy, 3495 Landfair.

The luncheon committee includes Mrs. Donald Alsop, Mrs. David Gutzait, Mrs. Douglas Charpentier, Mrs. John Zeman and Mrs. Leonard Cowan.

After the luncheon Mrs. Gutzait, vice president, will conduct a business meeting, when plans for the year will be discussed.

Hastings Ranch Garden Club members have been assisting in work at the County Arboretum during the summer.

Alpha Chis
Plan Saturday
Swim Party

A "Welcome-Back" barbecue-swim party for Alpha Chi Omega Juniors and their husbands will begin at 6 p.m. Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Henderson, 1366 Oxford Rd., San Marino.

The gardens and pool of the Henderson home will be decorated to suggest an Hawaiian theme. Mrs. Foss Nielsen, Mrs. Elwood Laine and Mrs. Allen Payne are in charge of arrangements.

Co-hostesses for the event were Mrs. LeRoy Poorman, Mrs. Max Harlow, Mrs. Walter L. Mann, Mrs. Donald Williams and Mrs. George Knauff.

Victor E. Caffees
Enjoy Vacation

The Victor E. Caffees, 1240 Coronet, and daughter, Debora, have returned from a two-week motor trip.

Part of their time was spent visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cary and their children, Marshall, Brian, Stephen and Lora, former Ranch residents now, making their home in Atherton, Calif.

The Caffees also enjoyed a stay at Lake Tahoe and Reno.

Bertram L. Potters
Holiday at Ojala

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram L. Potter, 1340 Daveric, and their children, Paul, Alexandra and Josh, enjoyed a stay at "Ojala" in Ojai Valley.

Highlight of the occasion was the beautiful fish caught by Paul at a nearby stream.

Pasadena
To Select
School Head

Pasadena may soon have a new school superintendent.

A special citizens' committee has narrowed the field of those proposed for the post and turned several names over to the Board of Education for its decision.

Names of those being considered have not been released, but it is understood that some of the men are Pasadenas, some are from other sections of the state, and others from out-of-state.

Board members have expressed the hope they can choose a local man for the position, which has been open since Dr. Stuart McComb resigned under pressure during the controversy over teacher electioneering in the school board election.

The Board took action recently, which should make the superintendent's position more attractive, in placing the Board secretary under the control of the superintendent.

In so doing, the Board has left it to the new superintendent to decide whether he will assume the duties of secretary himself or delegate them to an assistant.

Robert Etienne, who has served as secretary to the Board some 2½ years, agreed to stay on the job on a week-to-week basis until the new superintendent is selected and decides what he wants to do about the position.

The new Board members used as one of their campaign issues the fact that the secretary to the Board was not responsible to the superintendent, charging this did not make for a smooth running school operation.

Members of the screening committee who sifted names of a score of candidates before turning them over to the Board, were Dr. Hollis P. Allen, Claremont; Morris B. Pendleton, manufacturer; William C. Berwick, department store executive; Dr. Edgar Morphet, University of California, and Dr. Osman R. Hull, USC.

Tri Deltas
Attend
Meeting

A potluck supper, held last Monday evening in the La Canada home of Mrs. Elbert L. Kennedy, 4251 Commonwealth, opened the fall activities of the Pasadena area alumnae of Delta Delta Delta.

Mrs. Charles A. Klinger, president, presided at the business meeting and welcomed new members as well as incoming juniors to the group.

Mrs. Skipper Rostker, vice president, introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Phillip Sturgeon, director of hematology research at Los Angeles Children's Hospital.

Co-hostesses for the event were Mrs. LeRoy Poorman, Mrs. Max Harlow, Mrs. Walter L. Mann, Mrs. Donald Williams and Mrs. George Knauff.

V. Bowditch
To Reside
In Ranch

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Bowditch and their three sons, Jonathan, David and Brenton, recently arrived in the Ranch for a year's stay. They are living in the Louis J. Pollack home, 1005 Cynthia, while the Pollacks are abroad.

Mr. Bowditch is a director at the Pasadena Playhouse. The new arrivals are natives of Massachusetts but have spent the last two years in Richmond, Va., where Mr. Bowditch was associated with the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Theater.

Jonathan will attend John Marshall Junior High School and David has enrolled at Don Benito School. Brenton will have to wait another year before he is eligible for school.

Club Slates
Progressive
Patio Party

Las Jardineras members plan one of their traditional progressive patio parties Saturday night to open the year's festivities.

Members and their husbands will gather at 7 p.m. for cocktails at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Calmer, 3605 Shadow Grove. Then dinner will be served on the patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Atkinson, 3795 Shadow Grove.

The group will adjourn to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lindman, 3770 Hampton, for dessert and dancing. Plans for the event have been made by Mrs. Calmer, Mrs. Lindman, Mrs. Peter Lubisch and Mrs. Martin Smith.

The first regular fall meeting of the club will be held at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Horace Ray, 3690 Newhaven, with Mrs. Charles Ayres and Mrs. Russell Pooler serving as her co-hostesses.

Mrs. Charles Coates is president of the club, and Mrs. Smith is vice president and program chairman.

COME TO THE FAIR... Margo Cole, 19, and her two little pigs invite all to attend Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona

Your Health...

Beware of 'Cures' for Bunions, Anemia, Diabetes

(Presented as a public service by the Foothill Branch of the Los Angeles County Medical Association)

This is the third in a series of articles discussing drugs and devices which informed sources—the medical profession, government authorities and reputable medicine manufacturers—agree should not be sold to the public for the purpose of self-medication.

Previously discussed were drugs and devices for baldness, moles, eyelashes, rheumatism, wrinkles, high blood pressure, piles, sinus trouble, hormone deficiency and bust development.

HAIR REMOVERS—Electrolysis, in expert hands, is the only known method of removing superfluous hair permanently and safely. Misused by inexperienced people, electrolysis can cause tragic disfigurements.

There are many chemical depilatories, epilators, abrasives, etc., which when used according to directions, will accomplish temporary removal of hair in a satisfactory and reasonably safe manner. Results, however, are not permanent and these products do not retard growth of hair.

Bleaching creams or lotions, including those alleged to generate oxygen, will not remove hair, even temporarily. X-ray machines, generally under fanciful trade names, have been advertised for hair removal, but such treatments are extremely dangerous. Avoid them.

PROSTATE GLAND DISORDERS—Devices designed to permit the application of heat to or massage of the prostate gland have been advertised for prostatitis, hypertrophy and other prostate gland disorders. Even in skilled hands, such implements have limited value and their use by untrained persons to the neglect of more competent measures may be attended by serious consequences. Prostate gland disorders may include many diseased conditions, such as cancer, too serious for self-treatment.

DIABETES—Diet or diet with insulin injections are the only two recognized effective treatments for controlling this incurable disease. Herbal and other oral drug treatments are worthless and reliance upon them may cause early death. Diabetes should be under the care of a physician for periodic examinations and possible adjustment of control measures.

BUNIONS—There is no known product which will remove, "dissolve" or "reduce" bunions. Surgery is the only avenue open to complete recovery from these bony enlargements.

ANEMIA—An effective iron tonic may be helpful in treatment of simple or nutritional anemia due to deficient diet. But if the anemia is involved with a pathologic condition, no known product may be truthfully advertised as a cure or remedy. Pernicious anemia is a very serious condition and self-treatment of this disease should never be attempted.

EYEBROW DYES—Preparations containing coal-tar dyes, and at least most metallic dyes, should never be used to color the eyebrows or eyelashes. Mascara or colorings having a carbon black base will accomplish the purpose harmlessly.

Pops Concert To Feature Modernaires

The Modernaires, recording and nightclub songsters, will be featured as guest artists at the Pasadena Pops Concert tomorrow night.

This will be the third concert in a series of four being held at Santa Anita Turf Club in Arcadia. The fourth and last concert will be held on Sept. 27, with Dan Daily as guest vocalist.

David Rose will conduct his world famous orchestra in favorite "Pops" melodies of show tunes and light classics.

This is the fifth season Mr. Rose has conducted these open air concerts, and he has made them an integral, favorite part of the Southland's musical scene.

The concerts will begin at 8:30 p.m., with a buffet supper served from 6:30 p.m. Tickets are available by calling the Junior League Cottage at SEcamore 6-8850 or they may be purchased at the Turf Club box office before the Friday evening performances.

AUTO SHOW

George Sallih's Indianapolis winner, the Belond Exhaust Special, yesterday was added to the growing list of standard automobiles to be displayed at the 10th annual International Show, which opens a 10-day run Friday at Gardena Stadium.

HANDLE WITH EXTREME CARE—that's the order of the day as Superior Court Judge Mildred L. Lillie and Joe Crail, chairman of the Constitution Week Commemoration Committee, unpacked some of the priceless manuscripts which are now on display at the Museum of Science and Industry in Exposition Park through Oct. 13. More than 100 documents, valued at $100,000, are included in the four-week exhibit sponsored by the committee in honor of the 170th anniversary of the signing of the United States Constitution.

Garden Notes...

Prize-Winning Roses Soon Available at Local Nurseries

The newly-crowned champions of the rose world are White Knight, Fusilier and Gold Cup. These lovely new roses, winners of the 1958 All-American rose selections award, will be widely available in bare root form at local nurseries early in January, according to California Association of Nurserymen information.

Currently, however, the 1957 introductions are now in bloom in containers at most nurseries.

These include the two 1957 All-America winners, Golden Showers and White Bouquet, as well as many other gorgeous introductions which California gardeners may include among their standard favorites.

Golden Showers was the first All-America winner in the Climber class. Its lovely golden-yellow blossoms cascade thickly from robust canes, thereby earning the descriptive name. Although classed as a climber, Golden Showers can be grown as a large bush, or trained to pillar shape. Unlike many climbers, this lovely champion has a long blooming period.

THE COMPANION winner in 1957 was a beautiful white floribunda, White Bouquet. This rose has the added distinction of being the first white rose to win the All-America award. Its fragrant, gardenia-like white or creamy blooms are large for the floribunda class: 4 inches or more across. The shrub is compact, low-growing and well-foliaged.

One lovely new rose fast gaining popularity in California is Love Song. A descendant of the ever-admired Peach, Love Song is bi-color: its lovely petals are rich salmon-pink on the inside and brilliant yellow on the outside.

One great attraction of Spartan, another of the new rose availabilities, is the extremely long blooming season, from early spring to severe frost. It has gorgeous burnt orange-red, softening to reddish coral. The blooms of this vigorous floribunda have a sweet old rose fragrance.

Stunning Montezuma is another recent introduction which has already joined the ranks of the standard favorites. Bright scarlet-orange flowers bloom freely on this robust, heavily-foliaged plant. This is a grandiflora, eye-catching and easy to grow.

Two recently introduced climbers, fast becoming popular in California, are Coral Dawn and Gladiator. Both are easily trained and quite disease resistant. The flowers of Coral Dawn are coral-pink, while Gladiator's blossoms range from deep pink to light red.

The earlier mentioned 1958 champions will be eagerly welcomed when they are distributed in January. One of them, White Knight, is the result of a long search for a perfect white hybrid tea. The difficulty has been to develop a white rose that will not ball or discolor regardless of weather. White Knight answers this challenge.

TWO FLORIBUNDAS, Fusilier and Gold Cup, received the All-America award this year. The floribunda is a bushier, lower-growing plant than the standard hybrid tea and has smaller flowers growing in clusters or sprays rather than larger roses on long stems. Floribundas are especially useful as border plants.

Fusilier is a luminous, brilliant orange-red rose with frilled petals. The blooms form immense clusters on the glossy, dark-green foliage of this medium growing shrub.

Gold Cup is an unusual achievement: a pure golden-yellow rose. Many yellow roses have a tendency to vary in color from inside to edge of petal, but not Gold Cup. It is pure, non-fading and pleasantly fragrant. The plentiful foliage of this bushy 2½-foot shrub is highly disease resistant.
